

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Impact of the Election on the Makeup of the House and Its Committees

As of November 7, 2018, 1:30 pm, EST

Note: The following committee rosters show the change in membership based on which Members are not returning for the 116th Congress. The change in party control will result in a change in committee ratios. In order to project what the committee ratios might look like in the new Congress, the Chamber looked at the committee ratios during the 109th Congress when the majority party held 232 seats and the minority held 203 seats. The new Democratic majority will, in consultation with the minority, set the final committee ratios. The committees could expand or contract in overall size and the new Congress could adopt different committee ratios. Therefore, the projected committee ratios are for illustrative purposes only.
