

THE ATHENEE HOTEL
BANGKOK

The Athenee Hotel stands tall to support friends in the industry
The hotel remains open with restaurants to welcome guests relocating from other hotels

Even during these challenging times with the deepening impact on the travel and tourism industry, The Athenee Hotel, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Bangkok is continuing its operations to support friends in the industry and welcoming new guests.

The hotel has been opening its doors to accommodate guests transferring from hotels that are temporarily closed. Epicurean experiences are still offered for in-house guests at the hotels restaurants located on the 3rd floor. Open for lunch and dinner, strictly observing government policies on hygiene and social distancing yet allowing in-house guests to enjoy their favorite cuisine in a safe and clean environment. Full delivery and take-away services with a wide range of menus are also available for outside guests to still enjoy the highest quality of food in the comfort of your own home or office.

“Take care of our guests and associates - is our core value.” said ChooLeng Goh, General Manager of The Athenee Hotel. “Our highest priority is the health, safety and security of our guests, associates, and friends and partners in the industry. We are doing our best to accommodate and provide comfort to guests in-house under whatever circumstances has brought them to us. We are here to play our part in the community and provide a safe and secure environment to stay”

The hotel is committed to providing the highest standards on hygiene and social distancing and continues to follow the latest advice and recommendations from the WHO, CDC and the Thai government. All prevention measures have been implemented around the hotel.

“We have controlled access to the hotel with thermal scanners to check all visitors temperature at the hotel’s entrance, we are providing masks and personal hand sanitizer to all of our staff, we have increased cleaning and sanitizing frequency, and we strictly mandate social distancing. We want to assure that our guests and staff feel safe when they are in the hotel,” said Ms Goh.

The Athenee Hotel, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Bangkok is managed by Marriott International, Inc, and offers 374 rooms and suites, eight restaurants and bars. The hotel is located on Wireless Road and is only a few steps from the Skytrain - Ploenchit station.
